Re: United States v. Glenda Miller
Crim. No. 09-302

Dear Judge Chesler:

Neither Ms. Miller nor this office received any notification of a surrender date to the Federal Bureau of Prisons. However, Pretrial Services, in a routine office visit with Ms. Miller on New Years Eve, while looking on the BOP website, determined that Ms. Miller was designated to FCI Danbury, with a surrender date of January 6, 2010. I am respectfully requesting a two-week stay of Ms. Miller's surrender date, in order that she can make arrangements for her fourteen year-old son to be taken to Maryland to reside with Ms. Miller's sister during her period of incarceration.

I have enclosed a proposed consent order reflecting this request, that has been agreed to by the parties. If the Order meets with Your Honor's approval, kindly have it executed and returned to the parties as well as Pretrial Services, in order that we can forward a signed copy to Danbury.

Respectfully submitted,

Lorraine Gauli-Rufo
Assistant Federal Public Defender
